SHORT REVIEW OF HALACHOS FOR THIS SHABBOS, EREV TISHA B'AV:

1. Our custom is to wear Shabbos clothes, although to mark the mourning period one may change one garment from his usual Shabbos wear, if it is not an obvious change.
2. Many do not study Torah unrelated to Tisha B'Av beginning on Shabbos afternoon.
3. We Daven Mincha early (6:00 pm) to allow time to go home and have a proper Shalosh Seudos.
4. At Shalosh Seudos one may feast as they wish, including meat dishes.
5. One does not eat the bread and boiled egg on Shabbos Erev Tisha B'Av.
6. One should not invite social company for Shalosh Seudos, unless they are accustomed to eating together every week.
7. The meal must end before sunset (8:22 pm), when the fast starts. Nevertheless one does not change shoes or clean up from the Shabbos meal until Shabbos is actually over.
8. Original custom was for people to walk to Maariv while still Shabbosdik, and to remove their shoes after Barchu. One who does this should bring their Tisha B'Av shoes to shul before Shabbos, to be able to walk home in them after Eichah.
9. Alternatively one may say Baruch HaMavdil at home when Shabbos is over, and then change shoes and come (drive) to shul for Maariv and Eichah.

HAVDALAH MOTZEI SHABBOS, TISHA B'AV

This Motzei Shabbos we are obviously unable to make our usual Havdalah over a cup of wine or the like, as it is the beginning of a fast day. As such, the recitation of Havdalah may be divided into as many as four parts.

1. Baruch HaMavdil Bain Kodesh L'Chol: This simple pronouncement, blessing Hashem who distinguishes between the sacred and the mundane, is said to declare an end to Shabbos. This Shabbos, one who wishes to engage in any non-Shabbos activity before or without davening Maariv, must first make this pronouncement. Thus, one who plans to drive to Maariv and Eichah should make this declaration before changing into their Tisha B'Av shoes and driving to shul. Women who do not intend to daven Maariv must make this pronouncement before doing any work after Shabbos.
2. Atah Chonantanu: This paragraph inserted in the Maariv Amidah serves as our single Birchas Havdalah for this Motzei Shabbos. One who omitted it need not repeat the Amidah.
3. Borei Me'orei Ha'Eish: The Bracha over the light of a fire is made after Maariv, ideally before reciting Eichah. Because of the somber nature of Tisha B'Av, it is customary to make the Bracha on two candles held together, rather than on a flaming torch (multi-wicked Havdalah candle).
4. Havdalah over wine is made on Sunday night, to break the fast. One recites the simple Havdalah as made after Yom Tov, consisting of only the Bracha for wine and the Bracha of Havdalah, without the introductory paragraph and without fragrant spices. We may make Havdalah over wine, and need not seek beer or other alternative beverages.

A person who needs to break the fast due to illness, should make Havdalah on Tisha B'Av itself, before eating. They should not make it over wine, but use another significant beverage such as coffee, tea or soda.

Due to the fact that this year we are fasting on the 10th of Av, all nine days activities are permitted immediately after the conclusion of the fast, with the exception of eating meat and drinking wine. These should not be done until Monday.

* Families of those who Daven at the 7:00 PM Minyan on Friday night should ideally light before 7:30 PM.

Ezras Nashim

The women's section in the main shul, as well as the new women's section in our new Bais HaMedrash, are designated exclusively for the use of women during all Davening times, even during the week.

We ask you to respect this policy of the shul for two reasons. For yourself, because men Davening outside of the men's section implies a certain separation from the Tzibbur. And most importantly for the sake of those for whom the women's section is built. While it is true that those sections are often empty during weekday Davening, they are there so that women who wish to Daven with the Minyan will be comfortable doing so. They will not feel welcome if men are occupying their section.

Thank you for your attention to this matter!

There is no Shalosh Seudos in shul this Shabbos.

New Night Daf Yomi at 9:00 PM

As part of the Kollel Bais HaMedrash, we have a group committed to a new night time Daf Yomi, Sunday- Thursday nights at 9:00 PM. The night Kollel will be restarting in earnest in our new Schwartz Bais HaMedrash on Rosh Chodesh Elul. Please stay tuned for exciting details.

New Daily Shacharis at 8:30 AM!

Now you can attend Rabbi Hauer's 7:40 AM Daf Yomi either after Davening at the early Minyan (6:40 or 6:50 AM), or before the new late Minyan (8:30 AM).

This minyan will begin Friday in the main shul, but will subsequently be held on Mon-Fri in the new Auxiliary Bais Hamedrash.

Volunteers to help serve as Gabbaim for this Minyan are welcome. Please be in touch with Rabbi Hauer or a shul officer.
