The Weekly Parsha

Sedrah Selections – Selections

by Zvi Akiva Fleisher

Ch. 41, v. 1: “Choleim” — Is dreaming — Shouldn’t the verse have said “cholam,” he dreamt? This indicates that he dreamt the same dream continuously for two years. He did not enlist only the services of Yoseif to divine the dream. For two whole years he had many people explain the dream, but none to his satisfaction. (This explains “kol chartumei Mitzrayim” of verse 8.) With a slight variation: Every morning for two years he forgot his dream. At exactly two years of dreaming the same dream he finally remembered his dream, and Yoseif was called to divine it. (Medrash Hagadol)

This dream was continually replayed all night long, hence the present tense. (Rabbeinu Menachem)

Ch. 41, v. 1: “U’Faroh choleim” — The word “choleim” is spelled defectively, lacking the letter Vov between the Ches and the Lamed. We are thus left with the letters Ches-Lamed-Mem. These letters can be switched around to form the words “ChoMeiL” and “LeCHEm.” Inherent in Paroh’s dream was that Hashem sent a message of mercy, “chem-loh,” that during the years of abundance, sustenance, “lechem,” should be set aside.

Ch. 41, v. 3, 4: “Olose acha’rei’hen ... vataamode’noh eitzel, Vatochalnoh” — The seven emaciated cows represent the evil inclination. They first rise against a person, “olose,” then stand right next to him, “vataamode’noh eitzel,” and then finally overpower and swallow him, “vatochalnoh.” (Sfas Emes)

Ch. 41, v. 45: “Tzofnas Paa’nei’ach” — Hidden clarified — The sale of Yoseif was hidden from all, save those who participated and the purchasers. There was one exception, our Patriarch Yitzchok (Rashi on 37:35 d.h. “va’yeivk”). To all it was hidden, save Yitzchok, whose name has the same numerical value as “paa’nei’ach,” clarified. (Nirreh li)

Ch. 42, v. 16: “M’raglim a’tem” — You are spies — Yoseif knew that they weren’t spies, so how did he allow an outright lie to escape his lips? He used the word “m’raglim” as an acronym for “Mi’zera Rochel G’navtem L’orchas Yish’m’eilim M’chartem.” (Sheivet Musor)

In verse 11 Yoseif’s brothers said, “Lo HOYU avo’decho m’raglim.” This unusual expression, in the past tense, alluded to their saying that in the past they were not spies, but in the future they would be. This is because their souls would enter the bodies of the tribal heads in the desert who were sent to spy out Canaan. This could also explain Yoseif’s claiming that they are spies. (n.l.)

Ch. 43, v. 34: “Va’yishtu va’yish’k’ru imo” — And they drank and they became inebriated with him — The brothers had not consumed any wine from the time they sold Yoseif. Why did they break away from this behaviour now? Yoseif accused them of being spies. If they would not be afraid to become drunk, which carries with it the risk of letting out all one’s secrets, “nichnas yayin yotzo sode” (gemara Eiruvin 65a), this would be solid proof that they were innocent. (Zichron Moshe)

Ch. 44, v. 4: “Lo hirchiku” — They didn’t go far — Yoseif sent after them immediately, so that they would not have said “t’filas ha’derech.” Once they would have said “t’filas ha’derech,” which includes the words “mikaf ko oyeiv ... umikol mi’nei furonios,” the messenger would have been unable to catch them and cause any stress through the trumped up charges, so great is the power of this prayer. (Imrei Emes)

Messages from Rabbi Goldberger

Dear Kehilla HaKedosha,
Wishing everyone a freilechen Chanukah.

SIYUM ON BRACHOS

Last week our Gemara Brachos shiur made a festive siyum on Maseches Brachos. We said divrei Torah, sang, danced and celebrated the siyum. We believe it’s been a five-year journey to this point. This Sunday we start Maseches Megilla. If you’d like to join us, we meet every Sunday morning at 9:30 in the Bais Medrash and learn until 10:15 am.

AMAZING CHANUKAH CARNIVAL

The Chanukah Carnival was amazing! Wall-to-wall parents, kids and grandparents in a room full of games, arts and crafts, magic, balloons, with a friendly and warm atmosphere. And nice food. I walked into the simcha hall about halfway into it and I was filled with nachas by what I saw and experienced. Many young families with their kids all having a great time together. As Lenny and Glenna said, “That’s our future, b’ezras Hashem.” Big thanks to Moshe and Shelly Cohen, Saul and Toby Passe, and David and Debbie Schwartz for a fantastic job as organizers of the event.

BAIS MEDRASH RENOVATION

With G-d’s help we went over the $40,000 mark in pledges and over $20,000 in the bank toward our $75,000 goal for expanding and refurbishing our Bais Medrash upstairs. Thanks to all who have participated so far as we keep on moving through the fundraising process. We hope to get our permits in the next few weeks and to begin building shortly after that. We’ll be keeping you posted. If you have decided what you would like to contribute toward the project, please let me know so we can keep updating our total pledges. Much thanks and yasher koach, may Hashem help us to succeed in building a beautiful Bais Medrash.

A lichtigeh (light filled) Chanukah to one and all.

Schor Kiddush

Shloime and Miriam Schor invite the kehillah to a kiddush on Shabbos Chanukah, December 15, to celebrate the birth of Tzofia Tova (who’s now 7 months old) and to thank Hashem for their new home. The kiddush will be at their home at 2602 Steele Road following davening.

Sisterhood News

Dear TY Sisters,

First, we are very excited to announce that Shulamim Heldoorn will be the treasurer for the Sisterhood. Thanks Shulamim!, and welcome.

Second, dues for 5773 (2012-2013) are $25. You will receive discounts for our events as well as letting us know you are a part of the TY Sisters! We will sponsor some free events and help out the shul when needed.

On Tuesday night, December 4, many of us met in the Annex to discuss TY Sisterhood events and shiurim for the year, and to solicit volunteers for the events. Here are the next events on the horizon. Please watch for details as we get them on the schedule.

- Live presentation on checking vegetables and fruits from the Vaad Hakashrus.
- “Ask the Rebbetzin” night, December 25 at 8 pm. Submit questions in advance or wait until the meeting.
- Thrift shop trip, December 30, where 10% of what was spent goes to the shul.
- Taharas hamishpacha/Shalom bayis class with Rebbetzin Bracha for 6 weeks — 3 on halacha and 3 on hashkafa.
- Class in Jewish Art subjects with Susan Vick at the Goldsmith Museum at Chizuk Amuno for an hour and a half.

There was also interest in having a craft day, or a series of craft days. We are looking to sisterhood members to provide leadership to get it off the ground. If you are interested in leading this event, please let us know and we can help you form your committee.

Focus on Tanach

The idea is to complete all of Tanach, as a community, with each family or individual learning a book from Tanach or a Parsha from the Torah. There can be overlap, as long as we finish Tanach as a shul.

Sign up with Shaina Margolese at momargolese@yahoo.com or 410-358-7387.

Rabbi Goldberger would very much like the Torah parshiyos to be completed by the youth of our shul. Sign up with Nechama Goldman, nechamabgoldman@gmail.com, 410-440-6234 or Shonny Katz, 410-358-0440, Shonny613@hotmail.com.

Thrift Shop Trip

Hi TY Sisters!

We have been wanting to do a thrift shop trip together for a while. Some of us thrift shop veterans really want to share our skill with you. We will go to the Village Economy Store at 790 West North Avenue, where many color tags are half price on Sundays and Mondays. The cross street is Madison Park. We will meet at the shul parking lot, Sunday, December 30, at 2 pm, and we can either carpool or follow each other.

Our idea is to make a 10-percent donation to the shul based on what we buy.

We hope you can join us!
Devorah and Elka

Weekday Mincha/Maariv Minyan
